

OUR SPECIALIST ECONOMIC SERVICES

The economic importance of new development is a key theme of the Government's agenda for growth. All development schemes have an economic impact, which local planning authorities are required to consider when making planning decisions. WYG has an in-house team with the expertise to quantify and assess the nature and scale of economic benefits associated with a wide range of developments.

ECONOMIC IMPACT & ASSESSMENT

WHAT WE DO

- Economic Impact Assessments including residential, tourism and employment developments
- Labour market profiling
- Economic benefits statements
- Analysis of construction and operational phases of development

DEMOGRAPHICS

WHAT WE DO

- Analysis of demographic trends
- Consumer classification analysis
- Socio-demographic profiling
- Mapping commuting patterns

RETAIL & LEISURE

WHAT WE DO

- Retail and leisure studies
- Impact assessments
- Trade draw and catchment analysis
- Development appraisals
- Sequential site assessments

HOUSING

WHAT WE DO

- Objective Assessments of Need
- Affordable housing need assessments
- 5 year housing land supply statements
- Analysis of housing delivery mechanisms

Contact one of our specialists for more information and advice:

Bristol: Tristan Hutton E: tristan.hutton@wyg.com T: 0117 244 0526 • Cardiff: Peter Waldren E: peter.waldren@wyg.com T: 02920 320 722 • Harrogate: Steve Morton E: steve.morton@wyg.com or Sophie Drury E: sophie.druryp@wyg.com T: 01423 857 510 • Leeds: Matthew Good E: matthew.good@wyg.com T: 0113 278 7111 • London: Lucy Farrow E: lucy.farrow@wyg.com T: 0203 946 5989
Manchester: Daniel Brown E: daniel.brown@wyg.com or Heather Lindley-Clapp E: heather.lindley-clapp@wyg.com T: 0161 872 3223 • Newcastle: Robert Murphy E: robert.murphy@wyg.com T: 0191 255 7300